

The public air waves should not be a vehicle for a large company to air partisan political messages FROM EITHER PERSPECTIVE before an election. Our democratic process demands, and our citizens deserve, to see a balanced view, even if it means to air a biased and inaccurate documentary with commentary or an opportunity for the other perspectives to be presented.